

Learn
Sanskrit

and discover the
Vedantic philosophy
underlying the great
Sanskrit epics

Weekly classes for beginners will start in West London

Saturday 21st April 2018, at 9am.

St James School, Earsby Street, London W14 8SH

There is no charge for this course; students are welcome to make a donation at the end of the term to help support our work, if they wish.

To reserve a place - please contact davidstollar@btinternet.com

The course begins with learning the Devanāgarī script, followed by the basic grammar, which is taught using our own text books. Students must be willing to commit to a weekly assignment of homework.

Classes are supported by a full series of videos. Participants will work towards eventually taking the Cambridge IGCSE examination, which in its final stages incorporates the study of the Bhagavad Gītā in the original language of Sanskrit.

Also included in the course is an exploration of the various genres of Sanskrit literature with particular reference to the cultural and philosophical background of the Rāmāyana and Mahābhārata epics.